U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services New York City NY Processing Dates Posted January 17, 2007

Back

Print this Page

Notice: U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) has improved the reporting procedure for processing times of immigration benefit applications. In the past, USCIS benefit processing reports indicated the specific type of applications or petitions that were being processed and the date the cases were received. However, the date the case was received did not provide a clear indication of when USCIS expected to complete the case, nor did it provide a clear indication of USCIS' commitment to process cases within a certain cycle time. It also did not align with the processing times and cycle times the agency reports in other contexts.

This improved reporting procedure is an effort to give our customers more accurate information that better reflects current processing time and USCIS service level commitments. Effective immediately, when we are completing applications and petitions within our service level goals we will report that as the processing time. For example, when our service level goal is to process a particular kind of case within six months, and if our processing time is six months or less, we will show a date consistent with our service level goal because that reflects our commitment.

When we are not meeting our service level goal, the date posted will reflect the filing date of cases that are being completed. It should be noted that while in some instances reported processing dates may appear to have regressed due to this change, they do not reflect a lengthening of USCIS processing times, but simply the change in reporting. Our goal is to provide accurate projections and thus give customers clear expectations as to what they can expect as a processing time.

There are several important exceptions to the processing times shown below:

- Case processing will be delayed if we must ask you for more evidence or information. If we ask for missing required initial evidence, count the processing time from when we receive that missing evidence.
- The case processing timeframe will start over if a customer doesn't appear for an interview or asks that it be rescheduled.

What if I have a problem or have questions about a case?

We offer a variety of services after you file. For example, for most kinds of cases you can check the status of your case online.

For more information about when and how to contact us, whether your case is outside our processing time or if there are other issues, please see our fact sheet –

Case Services - How do I know what kind of services are available to me after I file my application or petition?

One additional point about these projections. They are the time to complete processing and mail the actual notice and/or document. If you check case status online and see that your case has been approved, and you haven't yet received your approval notice or document in the mail, we ask that you wait thirty days from the approval date before contacting us. That is because it may take that long before it is returned to us as undeliverable. You can also print the case status online answer for your records.

DIAGNOSIS OF NAZIR AHMAD

Nazir Ahmad lives with his parents, brother and sister in an apartment in Brooklyn, New York, and works as a food vendor. He graduated from high school in Pakistan, and has lived in the United States since 1999. Through an arranged marriage, he married Salma Bibi in Pakistan, in January 2006. He lived with her in Pakistan for the next three months, until he returned to the United States in March 2006. Since then, he has been limited to telephone communication with her. He told me that both he and his wife become extremely upset and both of them cry when they speak on the phone, because they wish to begin life together in the United States and have a family. He said, "This is why we got married." He feels that his life, at this point, is pointless and has no meaning. He finds himself living with his family as if he were single, when his desire is to grow and evolve and begin a family of his own. Simply put, as a direct result of being separated from his wife, with whom he has only been able to live with for three months, in Pakistan, he has become both anxious and depressed. He said that he has difficulty falling asleep at night, and wakes up on many occasions during the night. His appetite is poor and he has lost 5-8 pounds. He has difficulty focusing, concentrating and paying attention, is sad much of the time, chronically anxious, and, as noted above, has crying spells when he speaks with his wife. There is no evidence of suicidal ideation.

It is my professional opinion as a psychologist that Nazir Ahmad has developed an Adjustment Disorder with Mixed Anxiety and Depressed Mood as a direct result of living separate and apart from his wife, Saima Bibi, who is still living in Pakistan. His symptoms include sleep disturbance, poor appetite, weight loss, difficulty focusing and concentrating, persistent sadness, chronic anxiety, and crying spells. There is no evidence of suicidal ideation.

Nazir Ahmad is presently living a life without meaning, content or purpose. He got married because he wishes to have a family, and finds himself separated from his wife for one year, with no resolution of his conflict in sight. In my opinion, it represents an extreme hardship to Nazir Ahmad to continue a life of separation from his new wife, who continues to live in Pakistan. It would clearly be in his best interest if Saima Bibi could join him in the United States.

SUMMARY

- Over time, Mr. Ahmad depressive symptomatology will continue to grow the longer he remains separated from his wife, Saima Bibi.
3. Once the stressor (or its consequences) has terminated, the symptoms do not persist for more than an additional six months.
 2. The symptoms do not represent bereavement.
 - b) significant impairment in social, occupational, or academic functioning.
